Director: Albert Dupontel • Cast: Nahuel Pérez Biscayart, Albert Dupontel, Laurent Lafitte (of the Comédie Française), Niels Arestrup, Émilie Dequenne, Mélanie Thierry
November 1919. France glorifies the dead but is incapable of helping the survivors of the war. Albert and Édouard, two survivors of the trenches, one a humble accountant, the other a brilliant designer, decide to set up a war memorial scam. In the France of the Roaring 20s, the undertaking will prove to be as dangerous as it is spectacular.

Sunday 26 August 2pm • AURORE (I GOT LIFE) Comedy/Drama M 89 mins

Director: Blandine Lenoir • Cast: Agnès Jaoui, Thibault de Montalembert, Pascale Arbillot
Separated from her husband, Aurore also loses her job and to top it off, she learns that she will soon be a grandmother. She suddenly realises that society is pushing her gently aside, but when she unexpectedly encounters the love of her youth, Aurore decides to rebel by refusing to accept the cards she has been dealt. What if a new life was about to be offered to her?

Sun 26 August 5pm • L'ATELIER (WORKSHOP) Drama M 113 mins

Director: Laurent Cantet • Cast: Marina Foïs, Matthieu Lucci, Florian Beaujean
Antoine (Matthieu Lucci) has agreed to take part in a writing workshop, where several young people are being integrated into the world of work by penning a noir fiction with the help of Olivia (Marina Foïs), a widely respected novelist. This writing task will force them to revisit the town's industrial past and its dockyard that has been shut for the last 25 years. Feeling more closely connected to the anxieties of the modern world, the young man quickly starts rebelling against the group and against Olivia, who is simultaneously startled and drawn in by Antoine's violent nature.
